DETAILED ACTION

The preliminary amendment, which included cancellation of claims 1-20 and addition of new claims 21-45, filed on 7/12/2006, is made of record. Claims 21-45 are now pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 21-41, drawn to a process of making an intermediate, namely 2-amino-4,6-dichloro-5-formamidopyrimidine.

Group II, claims 42-45, drawn to a process of making the final product, namely purine derivatives using 2-amino-4,6-dichloro-5-formamidopyrimidine.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Where there is lack of unity the requirement for restriction is proper- See MPEP 803.02. The requirement for unity of invention is two-fold: (1) common utility and (2) sharing a substantial structural feature disclosed as being essential to the utility. Both these conditions are to be met with. Instant claims do not meet both these conditions.

Invention I and II are independent and distinct from each other because they are directed to process of making structurally dissimilar compounds that lack common core, namely, pyrimidine versus purines and are related as process of making an intermediate and process of making a final product Group I relates to intermediate lacking the essential structural features for the claimed use for the purine compounds. Consequently, the groups require separate prior art searches. They can be made and used independently. Art which may render obvious or anticipate one of the groups would not necessarily do the same for the other group. For example, prior art cited in the International Search Report and the Information Disclosure Statement, which is applicable to Group II, may not be applicable to Group I. Each can support a patent as the compounds of each group are capable of being utilized alone not in combination with other members listed in the Markush group.

Except for the N-C(NH₂)-N group, every ring and substituents in the core of pyrimidine and purine is varied and it cannot be said that the N-C(NH₂)-N essentially contributes to the utility recited in the claims. Thus, the common structural feature essential for the said utility is not met with. In addition, the pyrimidine compounds are intermediates and therefore do not share the same use as purines.

In addition, prior art cited in the Information Disclosure Statement and International search report clearly state other uses for the instant compounds. Thus, both the criteria set forth for unity of invention is not met with.

In view of distinct nature of each invention, the restriction is set forth in writing.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
